

How do you define a dignified return to greater Mexico City?

Espacios seguros con acceso a cultura y deportes

Tener acceso a todos los derechos

How to not start from zero?

Encontrar a alguien que te reciba al aeropuerto, estación, etc. y te lleve a tu lugar de destino final.

Getting all your ID documents, que no te nieguen INE si usas pasaporte de EUA

access to stable housing and things like clothes

how to access my money / setting up bank account

Community of support

Retorno digno is not being alone thru the process of coming back and having someone to reassure you that it will be ok spanish classes / language access

Working with universidades since they lack empathy in helping us get through School with the language.

Acceso a accurate information, navigating the MX system, knowing your rights

Feeling they can go somewhere for support, right of the bat

Support using public transportation, especially knowing routes aren't labeled and published online.

Support navigating the Mexican "system" in general.

Having someone to support you with specific trámites.

Not being alone

No ser extorsionado por figuras "oficiales" del aeropuerto, la policía, la carretera, el gobierno, dependencias gubernamentales, etc.

knowledge of highway system

Plan A, Plan B planning before coming localized information depending on the place you come back to having a support network you can ask for help/accompaniment

Bilingual Education for youth. A quick course on Mexican History/Civics

Reassurance that everything will be alright.

Need to be told that you are going to be needing support from the community

Administrative information- porque las escrituras estaban empeñadas y no habia dinero en el banco.

Grupo 1: What are the “indicators” of a retorno digno?

How are we redefining indicators as collective/familial instead of individual?

Grupo 2: What are the current structural obstacles to a dignified return?

COVID

Grupo 3: How are people already organizing in the process of deportation/return?

What are some of the obstacles for reaching out to and participating in organized communities?

Is there an endpoint to dignified return?

en su opinion, en que momento se logra un retorno digno?

no hay un tiempo en que puedo decir que tengo un retorno digno

es un camino, no un endpoint

un ingreso "oficialmente digno" realmente no es explotación laboral; muchas tenían first jobs in mexico que pagaron 2000-4000 per month aún no hay reunificación familiar even if you have a job you don't have the ability and time and money to reunite with your family

queda la discriminación por hablar ingles o ser pochx tratamiento diferente de migrantes de retorno y "expats"
